From the mountains to the seas
Every heart will finally see
You are moving through the earth
Calling every soul to worship

Through the darkness shines Your light
Every nation lifted high
All creation waits to sing
To the glory of the King

We can hear the sound arise
Every voice lifted high

All will sing
All will sing
Jesus, You are everything

Every tribe

Every tongue
Will declare what You have done

From the cities to the fields
Every heart begins to heal
What was distant now draws near
As Your presence fills the earth

Jesus over all
